New for 2010: Golfing For Ethics. Play golf AND earn enough ethics credits for your entire reporting period! How? Sign up below in addition to the regular registration above. Cost: $30 per player.

How it works: You and your teammates will find a multiple-choice ethics question at the tee box for each of the first nine holes you play. Debate the choices as you play the hole, then enter your group's answer on a separate scorecard. All arguments will be settled when the correct ethics answers are posted during the barbeque.

How to sign up for Golfing for Ethics: To foster discussion and enthusiastic debate required to earn the 2 ethics credits, all players on your team must agree to participate and agree on one answer. Sign up may be done in advance by sending an additional check for $180 made out to the Idaho State Bar (not 4th Dist) and sent along with this registration form or sign up the morning of the tournament by bringing a check for the same amount. _____ Yes, include our team in Golfing for Ethics.

The Golfing for Ethics portion of the 2010 Spring Fling is sponsored by the Professionalism and Ethics Section of the Idaho State Bar. Questions? Please call or e-mail Jim Dickinson at 287-7713 or jimd@adaweb.net.
